The Daily Quote

"South Carolina Sen. Lindsey Graham [R] says his Republican colleagues who don't want to reauthorize money for the Export-Import Bank have lost their way as conservatives... Graham, a potential 2016 presidential candidate, spoke Thursday alongside New Hampshire Sen. Kelly Ayotte [R] at a business that has benefited from the federal agency's financing... Graham, lead sponsor of legislation to reauthorize the program through 2019, said eliminating that financing option would make it difficult for U.S. businesses to compete globally and would cost jobs. 'If you want to defund this bank and allow China and Europe to have an economic advantage over people in the United States, then I think you've lost your way as a conservative,' he said. 'I want you to come up here and tell these people why they need to lose their jobs because of your ideological purity.'"
